Timeline Tidbits

- The first Club Exposure book takes place a couple of years before Club Solitaire is opened
- Shadow takes place roughly concurrent with the events of Rough, so you could read it before or after Rough and still be in timeline order.
- The first three Christmas at Club Solitaire stories all take place over the same two-week period of time but should be read in series order for best enjoyment.
- High Bar begins roughly two and a half years after the final Diamonds of Club Solitaire book.
